

HADESTOWN

TEEN EDITION

Dear Friend,

As a business owner, I am sure you are aware of the positive impact advertising has for your business. In addition, showing support for local, non-profit organizations helps to communicate to your existing and potential customers that you care for and invest back into your community. I would like to ask your consideration in supporting our organization by advertising in our upcoming event programs OR donating items. Before I give you the sponsorship details, here is a quick look at these events.

On October 22-25, 2026 WaCPAC will be presenting a production of “Hadestown: Teen Edition” directed by Andrea Murphy. This Tony- Award winning musical just made big waves with the West End Proshot theater release, becoming the highest-grossing theater debut of a musical ever. Even surpassing the previous leader, Hamilton. A beautiful, but tragic, love story about how far one will go for the one they love, even when the road seems impossible. The show will feature local talented performers ages 14 through 19. The time of performances will be 7:00pm Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings, and 2:00pm on Sunday. General admission tickets are $15 each. Tickets will be available for purchase online and at the door. Performances will be held at the Wayne Center for the Arts, 237 S. Walnut St., in Wooster.

The Wayne County Performing Arts Council is a non-profit organization dedicated to providing performing arts opportunities as well as family-friendly entertainment to the people of Wayne County, Ohio. Run completely by volunteers, this organization has been serving the area since 1982. Without the support of local people and organizations, WaCPAC could not do what it does. Would you please consider sponsoring these events? Sponsorship details can be found on the following page. WaCPAC is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization (#34-1387219).

If you would like further information about WaCPAC you can visit our website at www.wacpac.org, or contact our board president, Jenny Smith by email at wacpactheater@gmail.com or 818-298-7308. We appreciate your consideration and support.

Sincerely,
